

Classroom Voting Questions: Elementary Statistics

1. Which of the following best describes a situation in which you would use a nonparametric method (as opposed to another type of method)?
 - (a) The parameters of the population distribution are unknown.
 - (b) The parameters of the population distribution are not resistant.
 - (c) The population distribution is not normal.
 - (d) The shape of the population distribution is unknown.