

Classroom Voting Questions: Elementary Statistics

1. Which of the following best describes a situation in which you would use a nonparametric method (as opposed to another type of method)?
  - (a) The parameters of the population distribution are unknown.
  - (b) The parameters of the population distribution are not resistant.
  - (c) The population distribution is not normal.
  - (d) The shape of the population distribution is unknown.